Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism

Volume 21

A Word from Grand Knight Art Krygowski

Brother Knights, Council 11689 is up and running for the 2016-2017 fraternal year, and I ask that all come along for the journey. I would like to make this a year in which we come together as a unit with our sights set on the principles of the Knights of Columbus: Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism. The principles will lead us in many directions with a final destination approaching what Father Michael J McGivney envisioned back in 1882, to help our fellow man. What makes being a Knight worthwhile is being part of the team that makes the council work. Thanks to all of you who work so hard to keep our council going month after month. I also thank your families for the sacrifices they make so that you can be an effective and active Knight. I hope to see our newer members step up and get involved in an activity they are interested in. I look forward to seeing you at our meeting and at our events. Many people work very hard on these events, so please support and applaud their efforts with your attendance and participation

Deacon Ed Wilson was in town and was able to attend our July meeting. He gave us an inspiring talk about the Knights of Columbus. Deacon and his wife are enjoying retirement in Florida and Michigan.

Our Quarterly District Corporate Communion and Installation of Officers Ceremony for the new fraternal year of 2016-2017 was held on August 20th at St. Clement of Rome. We joined with Officers and Brothers from St. Clement of Rome, St. Isidore and St. John Vianney. It was followed by a dinner where we were able to enjoy the company of Family and Friends.

The annual Ice cream social held July 30th and 31st was a great success again this year. I would like to thank Rick Okerhjelm and Sal Bica for organizing this event and for all the volunteers who set up the tent on Friday, served ice cream after all masses then stayed to clean up and take the tent down afterwards.

The Holy Cross Children's Services Raffle Calendars are here! These calendars – which are perfect for home, office or as a gift – continue to be priced at only $25 each and offer the possibility to win daily and monthly, as well as the grand prize of $5,000. Please contact me or see me at a meeting to acquire a calendar.

If you don't have a name badge yet, please consider ordering one from Jerry Hund. If you would like to show your support for the Knights, you can order apparel from Sal Bica at the next meeting.

I am reaching out to all Brothers for your help in either assisting in preparing our meals or the cleanup at the end of our monthly meetings. Vito and Phil have been doing this for us for years, and they would like to start to give up their apron for some new helpers. Rick Okerhjelm has offered to help, but he needs a few more brothers to step up with him.

Life Insurance as a Gift

The initial reaction for many people when you mention life insurance as a gift is a quick step back and a questioning stare. "How morbid," they think. While it may seem that way when you first mention it, life insurance is really a thoughtful gift that can be a financial life preserver in tough times.

The problem with life insurance is the general perception. Many think of death instead of the great benefits it provides, and the security that it offers – even while you're alive.. Life insurance should be thought of as a precautionary protective measure for a family unit. The purchase of this product can mean saving your home, sending your children to college, and preserving your spouse's quality of life in the event of your death.

One of the times you may want to purchase life insurance for someone is when a family has a new baby. It's a great, low-cost way to set money aside for the future (i.e. college tuition, housing, business start-up, etc.). Of greater importance, it ensures these children will have insurance as adults, in case an illness later in life makes him or her uninsurable.

Newlyweds are also ideal recipients for life insurance. As they join their lives and financial responsibilities, young couples need to make sure that their early investments are fully protected. If something were to happen to one of them, the other may be faced with serious financial hardship. A life insurance policy is an ideal way to ensure their future and protect their assets.

As nontraditional as it may be, life insurance is a wise and caring gift to purchase for many people.

Protecting God's Children / Background Check

As has been mentioned numerous times at council meeting and in this newsletter, you must have taken the Protecting God's Children class and have submitted your name to the church offices to have a criminal background check done in order to volunteer at any K of C event that takes place on the church property. Three upcoming Protecting God's Children classes in our area are:

Go to www.virtusonline.org to check for available classes and to register.

Corporate Communion Masses

Our Next Corporate Communion will be held on September 18, 2016 at the 9:30 am Mass.

Lectors: Phil Mularski
Richard Okerhjelm

Acolytes: Denny Kubczak
Leonard Gutkowski

We hope you will join us to show the importance of family praying together.

Knight of the Month and Family of the Month

The Knight of the Month is selected by the Board of Officers, as a Knight who exemplifies in his daily life the principles of Catholic Life, and is instrumental to the success of our Council, Church, and Community.

The Knight of the Month for August: "George Sakorafos." In recognition of his exemplary service to the Council.

The Family of the Month is selected by the Board of Officers as a Family who exemplifies in the principles of Catholic Family Life, and who contribute to the success of our Council, Church, and Community.

The Family of the Month for August: "Joe Phillips Family." In recognition of their out-standing service to the Council.

VETS Returning Home

This organization, which helps veterans to make the transition to civilian life, is in need of kitchen supplies to give to the veterans who are making a new life. These supplies include dishes, glasses, pots and pans, kitchen utensils, cups, small appliances, silverware and anything else that can be used in the kitchen are welcome.

They also need towels of various sizes. All of these things are given to the veteran when he moves out of this organization to living on his own.

If you have any of the items listed above and you would like to donate them, please bring them to the meeting in July. Jerry Hund and I will make sure they are delivered.

Thanks,
Phil Kwasny

The Lighter Side

Jesus was walking along one day, when He came upon a group of people surrounding a lady of ill repute. It was obvious that the crowd was preparing to stone her, so Jesus made His now-famous statement, "Let the person who has no sin cast the first stone."

The crowd was shamed and one by one began to turn away. All of a sudden, a lovely little woman made her way through the crowd. Finally getting to the front, she tossed a pebble towards the woman.

Jesus looks over and says, "I really hate it when you do that, Mom."

Late one night, a burglar broke into a house he thought was empty. He tiptoed through the living room but suddenly he froze in his tracks when he heard a loud voice say: "Jesus is watching you!"

Silence returned to the house, so the burglar crept forward again. "Jesus is watching you," the voice boomed again. The burglar stopped dead again. He was frightened. Frantically, he looked all around. In a dark corner, he spotted a bird cage and in the cage was a parrot. He asked the parrot:

"Was that you who said Jesus is watching me?"
"Yes," said the parrot. The burglar breathed a sigh of relief and asked the parrot: "What's your name?"
"Clarence," said the bird.

"That's a silly name for a parrot," sneered the burglar. "What crazy guy named you Clarence?" The parrot said, "The same crazy guy who named the Doberman Jesus."

Q: Why didn't Noah go fishing?

A: He only had two worms!

How to Prove Live Begins at Conception Part 3

Are the unborn alive?

Clearly, the unborn are alive, because they are receiving nutrients from their mother that cause them to grow via cellular reproduction. I've heard some argue that the unborn are not alive because they can't survive without their mothers or they can't survive outside of her body. The problem with these objections is that they prove only that the unborn are alive in a certain place, not that they aren't alive.

The critic even concedes this when she says that unborn children can't live on their own or that they can't live outside the womb. This is just a roundabout way of saying that unborn children live with the assistance of their mothers (just as newborns can live only with assistance from their mothers or another human). If the fetus is growing, has a heart that is pumping blood through a circulatory system, and is sending electrical signals through a nervous system, how could it not be alive?

Another simple way to show that the unborn are alive is to ask the question, "What does abortion do to the fetus?" Most people will say that abortion kills the fetus, while some stubborn pro-choicers will say abortion removes the fetus from the womb. You can ask these stubborn people what happens to the fetus after it is removed. The critic must admit that the end result of these actions is the death of the fetus. But in order for something to die, wouldn't it be alive at some point?

Of course—but so what if the fetus is alive? Bacteria and oak trees are alive, and we kill them all the time. To answer this objection, we must show that the unborn are not just alive but that they are a special kind of living thing.

E-Mail Communications

Brothers:

One of the methods we use to communicate various events for the Knights is an e-mail list. As coordinator for the list, I want to ask any of you that haven't been receiving these messages to send me an e-mail from your home account. This will give me the correct and current e-mail for you, and I will keep you on the list.

Fraternally,
