A Word from Grand Knight Tom Gray

Fall is upon us and I for one am pleased...this is my favorite time of year. The cooler weather and the leaves changing, reaping the bounty of the earth, I just love it!

A special election was held at our last general membership meeting to replace our long time recorder Rob Tusset. He stepped down after many years of dedicated service. Thank you Rob for your service to this council. Your hard work and dedication was appreciated! Our new Recorder is Vince Ursini, Thank you Vince for stepping into this role! Vince was the Outside Guard so we also had to have an election to fill that vacated position. Our new Outside Guard is Stan Labuda. Thank you Stan for stepping up to take on this role!

Our council is having a membership drive and a baby bottle fundraiser this month. We are doing the membership drive in conjunction with handing out the baby bottles the first two weekends 10/2-3 & 9-10. We will be collecting the bottles the next two weekends 10/16-17 & 23-24. We will need men to work the table and do some recruiting. The baby bottle drive will be benefitting Gianna House and Abigayle Ministries. See the flyer attached to this newsletter.

The road cleanup is coming up October 9th (see the attached flyer). There is no PGC or background required for this event.

Our Trunk or Treat event is coming up 10/24. Please consider attending this event. It is a lot of fun to decorate your car and hand out candy to the kids. Bring your kids/grandkids. We will probably have some more information at the next general meeting.

It has been a while since I have mentioned that in order to volunteer at an event where we interact with the public, you are required to have Protecting Gods Children (PGC) certification and a background check.

October 11th is Columbus Day, in recent years there has been a movement to disparage Columbus. Below are some facts that dispute many of the things that people are claiming:

Columbus mutilated natives: This is untrue, this was actually done under a European Governor by the name of Nicolas de Ovando, in the Indies from 1502-1509. Columbus actually prohibited his men from harming the native population and executed two of his men for doing so.

Columbus was a pedophile: This comes from a misinterpretation of a letter to the Queen of Spain complaining about some mutineers and the selling of slave girls.

Columbus brought slavery to the new world: This is untrue. Slavery has been around since the beginning of civilization. Portugal was actually the first nation to begin bringing African slaves to the America's.

Columbus caused genocide of the indigenous people: This is also untrue, genocide by definition has to be intentional. There was some disease that killed some indigenous people, not all of them. This was neither intentional nor malicious.

From my family to yours, we wish you a Happy Fall!

Vivat Jesus!

As coordinator for the list, I want to ask any of you that haven't been receiving these messages to send me an e-mail from your home account. The Lighter Side

An Irishman moves into a tiny hamlet in County Kerry, walks into the pub and promptly orders three beers. The bartender raises his eyebrows, but serves the man three beers, which he drinks quietly at a table, alone.

An hour later, the man has finished the three beers and orders three more.

This happens yet again.

The next evening the man again orders and drinks three beers at a time, several times. Soon the entire town is whispering about the Man Who Orders Three Beers.

Finally, a week later, the bartender broaches the subject on behalf of the town. "I don't mean to pry, but folks around here are wondering why you always order three beers?"

'Tis odd, isn't it?" the man replies, "You see, I have two brothers, and one went to America, and the other to Australia. We promised each other that we would always order an extra two beers whenever we drank as a way of keeping up the family bond."

The bartender and the whole town was pleased with this answer, and soon the Man Who Orders Three Beers became a local celebrity and source of pride to the hamlet, even to the extent that out-of-towners would come to watch him drink.

Then, one day, the man comes in and orders only two beers. The bartender pours them with a heavy heart. This continues for the rest of the evening - he orders only two beers. The word flies around town. Prayers are offered for the soul of one of the brothers.

The next day, the bartender says to the man, "Folks around here, me first of all, want to offer condolences to you for the death of your brother. You know-the two beers and all..."

The man ponders this for a moment, then replies, "You'll be happy to hear that my two brothers are alive and well... It's just that I, myself, have decided to give up drinking for Lent."

He is the Guy

He's the guy who asked to join our organization.

He's the guy who paid his dues to join.

He's the guy who stood up in front of you and promised to be faithful and loyal.

He's the guy who came to our meeting and no one paid attention to.

He tried several times to be friends, but we all had our own buddies to talk to or sit next to.

He sat down several times, but no one paid any attention to him.

He hoped very much that someone would have asked him to take part in a fund raising project or something, but no one saw his efforts when he volunteered.

He missed a few meetings after joining because he was sick and couldn't be there.

No one asked him at the next meeting where he had been.

I guess it didn't matter very much to others whether he was there or not.

The next meeting, he decided to stay home and watch TV.

The following meeting, he attended, but no one asked him where he was for the last meeting.

You might say he's a good guy or a "good family man" who holds a responsible job who loves his community and country.

You know who else he is? HE'S THE GUY WHO NEVER CAME BACK.

It amuses me how the heads of organizations and the members discuss WHY the organization is losing members.

It amuses me to think that we spend so much time looking for NEW members when he was there all the time.

All we needed to do was make him feel needed, wanted and WEL-COMED.

So-Called “Equality Act” Threatens Society and Religious Communities

In 1776, future president Thomas Jefferson composed a few simple words that changed the world: “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.” The American fight for independence emerged from the idea of equality for all people; however, in retrospect, equality had not even begun to be realized at that time for Blacks, Native Americans, and women. Yet, the ideal remains: equality for all.

Understanding the role equality has played in the nation’s history, it may seem counterintuitive for Catholics to oppose the “Equality Act” currently before the U.S. Senate. When looking past the legislation’s name, the measure is far more dangerous than the bill’s supporters will discuss publicly.

Introduced as HR 5 by Representative David Cicilline from Rhode Island, the Equality Act would amend federal anti-discrimination laws, adding new regulations for “sexual orientation” and “gender identity and expression.” Senator Jeff Merkley from Oregon has introduced a similar Senate bill, S 393. Proponents have sought support by arguing that the bill prevents discrimination against those experiencing same-sex attraction or questioning their biological gender in housing, employment, education, and federal programs.

The Catholic Church has long taught that everyone deserves respect, compassion, and support, regardless of their affiliation. In truth, the “Equality Act” oversteps its stated intention under the guise of bringing about a more equal society. If passed, the “Equality Act” will discriminate against citizens and people of faith for their longstanding beliefs about marriage, sexuality, the nature of the human person, and the place of religion in society. As written, the legislation would encourage legal and social hostility toward religious persons and institutions, and would result in unjust changes to U.S. communities, such as:

- Requiring taxpayers to fund elective abortions, pressuring doctors and hospitals to perform abortions, and forcing many employers to cover abortions in their health insurance plans.
- Forcing girls and women to share locker rooms, showers, restrooms, and dorms with biological males who identify as a female, as well as to compete against them in school sports.
- Hindering the ability of shelters to provide safe washing or resting spaces for girls and women who have experienced trauma.
- Mandating doctors and counselors perform and promote gender transitions, as well as requiring religious organizations to pay for the procedures in their insurance

- Making it difficult for faith-based colleges to hire staff that uphold their religious mission.
- Attempting to force religious charitable or educational institutions out of the public square by making them choose between closing down services or abandoning their moral beliefs.

The Word from Lansing is a regular column for Catholic news outlets and is written by Michigan Catholic Conference President and CEO Paul A. Long. Michigan Catholic Conference is the official public policy voice of the Catholic Church in this state.

These sweeping changes are not only concerning for people of faith, but all who believe in protecting human life, upholding the truth about marriage, and ensuring religious institutions continue to serve the poor and suffering. The U.S. bishops recently joined hands with other religious organizations to demonstrate this point in a letter to Congress.

One of the most insidious provisions of HR 5 is exempting its provisions from the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA), a bipartisan 1993 law that protects the free exercise of religion from government overreach. RFRA has secured protections and advanced religious tolerance primarily for minority religious communities such as Hindus, Sikhs, Muslims, Seventh-day Adventists, and Native Americans.

Earlier this year, HR 5 passed the U.S. House of Representatives by a 224-206 vote. All of Michigan’s Democratic representatives voted in favor of the measure, while all the state’s Republican representatives voted against it. It is highly discouraging that the rampant partisanship in politics today is also present on this issue. With President Biden already indicating he will sign the so-called “Equality Act” into law, the only option that remains to stop the legislation is by defeating it in the U.S. Senate.

It is critical that lawmakers hear from Catholics and people of goodwill, clarifying that such legislation is incredibly harmful to religious communities, promotes a culture of violence in the womb while dismantling religious protections for those in the medical field, and continues the effort to prevent religious agencies from providing needed service. We must also reaffirm our Christian teaching and offer respect and compassion to all persons, including those in the gay community.

Please take a moment to contact U.S. Senators Debbie Stabenow and Gary Peters. Despite their support for the bill, urge them to reconsider at WWW.VOTERVOICE.NET/USCCB/CAMPAIGNS/80967/RESPOND.

New Orleans

We have all read or heard of the devastation wreaked upon New Orleans from Hurricane Ida. One of our members, Fr. Joe Hund, OFM, who spent over 40 years as a missionary, is now in the United States and is Pastor of St Mary of the Angels parish in one of the poorest parts of New Orleans. Fr. Joe is responsible for the church, a two-story school and the friary.

The buildings suffered significant damage to the roofs, water damage in the school, air conditioning unit in the school, elevator and exterior damage to the buildings. Prior to the hurricane, the church's air conditioning needed to be replaced with a hefty price tag, and is not yet installed. As you can see, Fr Joe, who has a very small congregation has many hurdles to cross.

Please keep Fr. Joe and his parish in your prayers...and if you can see fit to help financially, it would be greatly appreciated.

A Prayer

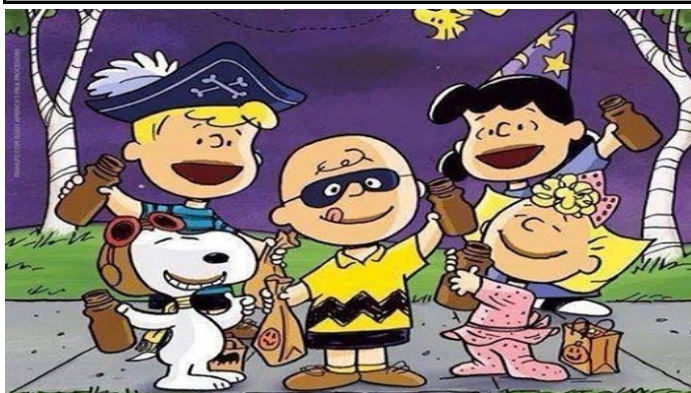

O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, at this most critical time, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care.

Most Holy Mother, we beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son. Overwhelmed with the burden of the sins of our nation, we cry to you from the depths of our hearts and seek refuge in your motherly protection.

Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of our people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom.

Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threaten the sanctity of family life. Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim that God's law is the foundation on which this nation was founded, and that He alone is the True Source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

O Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life. AMEN

No Vet Not Set!!

Fall is in the air! Soon it will be Halloween. Then will come Thanksgiving. Are you ready? Are you all set for that?

Likewise, do you ever wonder in this time of difficulty how set Vets Returning Home is for the coming of Thanksgiving? Will the vets residing there have a nice turkey dinner with all the trimmings? Or will they be served hotdogs and beans due to an austerity budget? We, including you, can have some say-so in that!

Vets Returning Home is currently in desperate need of money. Money to pay utility bills. Money to buy fresh meat, produce, and dairy. Money to purchase needed household items. Money to pay for needed maintenance and repairs.

St. John Neumann Assembly is currently conducting a Virtual Food Drive until October 10, 2021 for the benefit of Vets Returning Home in an effort to raise some of those sorriely needed funds. A virtual food drive allows us to collect needed funds instead of collecting canned and boxed items.

Please assist these homeless veterans by making a donation by October 10, 2021. Contributions should be made payable to St. John Neumann K of C Assembly 478 and mailed c/o S.K. Ron Kosciuszynski, Faithful Comptroller at 53657 Kristin Ct., Shelby Twp., MI 48316. Please indicate on the memo line of your check that the donation is for Vets Returning Home. Unlike many on-line fundraising platforms, 100% of your donation will be sent to Vets Returning Home!

We have set the goal of raising $2,000 to assist Vets Returning Home in their time of need. We currently are at 61% of our goal. Thank you to all those who have already contributed.

The goal is attainable – we are already over half way there! If every one of our brothers were to contribute something, we will easily reach our quota. If you have not yet donated, please consider doing so and help us to reach this goal. Perhaps you are not able to attend Council and/or Assembly meetings or events due to time, distance, or health. This endeavor gives you an outstanding opportunity to nonetheless exemplify the Order's four principles of charity, unity, fraternity, and patriotism by joining your brother Knights in reaching out to veterans in need. No amount is too small for a need so great. Any and all donations will be appreciated.

The veterans residing at Vets Returning Home answered the call when our nation needed help. Now they are in need of our help – will you answer their call? It would be the patriotic thing to do! It would be the charitable thing to do! It would be the right thing to do!

Please do your part, anything that you can, to ensure that the Thanksgiving table at Vets Returning Home will be set appropriately!

life...precious from the start

The St. Paul of Tarsus Knights of Columbus Council 11689 is doing a baby bottle drive to benefit two of our favorite charities, Abigayle Ministries and Gianna House. These two charities exemplify what we as Catholic gentlemen support in our respect of life. Because of the pandemic these charities are having a difficult keeping up as are most. So let's all chip in and help them out.

In addition to the baby bottles we are also running an online fundraising campaign at the below web link or the QR Code above in case you are unable to get to church to pick up a bottle and would still like to contribute.

A little of info about the charities:

Abigayle Ministries: Abigayle Ministries is a Christian interdenominational non-profit organization in Southeast Michigan. The ministry assists adult pregnant women and their children by introducing them to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and equipping them to be self-sufficient through its residential housing program.

Gianna House: The mission of Gianna House is to provide a safe residence for at-risk pregnant girls and young women and their newborn infants while providing spiritual, educational, and parenting support and resources to underserved women in our programs.

Vets Returning Home

Vets Returning Home continues to be in serious trouble because of the Covid-19/Corona virus. The virus has shut down most businesses and gatherings including two of the only fundraisers Vets Returning Home has throughout the year. It has also impacted the businesses that would normally supply them with meals, causing their food pantry to dwindle significantly. Vets Returning Home is currently placing collection jars in various business locations asking for donations in an effort to raise the money needed to stay in operation.

800 meals a week are served through their kitchen, and they also help supplement many other families in the veteran community. The situation has become dire. Any and all support, especially monetary donations, would be greatly appreciated, as they are desperately needed.

Please assist these homeless veterans by making a donation by October 10, 2021. Contributions should be made payable to St. John Neumann K of C Assembly 478 and mailed c/o S.K. Ron Kosciuszynski, Faithful Comptroller at 53657 Kristin Ct., Shelby Twp., MI 48316. Please indicate on the memo line of your check that the donation is for Vets Returning Home.

Unlike many on-line fundraising platforms, 100% of your donation will be sent to Vets Returning Home!
